

BROOKLYN EDITION DAILY NEWS PINK
Copyright, 1932, by News-Broadcasting Co., Inc. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. Printed as 2nd class matter. Post Office, New York, N. Y. Murray Hill 2-1234

Vol. 14. No. 157 60 Pages New York, Monday, December 26, 1932* 2 Cents PER COPY 10 CENTS PER WEEK

POISON BOOZE KILLS 6

—Story on Page 3

(NEWS photo)
BARBARA TO WED? OH, NO . . .—No wedding bells will ring for Barbara Hutton (above) and her princeling, Alexis Mdivani . . . that is, if kinsfolk of the Woolworth heiress have their way. There's a chilly silence at Hutton menage when prince's name is mentioned . . . and he is packing to sail for home on Wednesday.
 —Story on page 2.

(NEWS photo)
JOBLESS OF CITY GET CHRISTMAS DINNER.—Jobless and homeless men receive free Christmas dinner at the Municipal Lodging House at the foot of E. 25th St. A total of 10,500 were fed there, while police band and Glee Club entertained them with music and carols. Christmas dinners were also served in prisons and hospitals.
 —Story p. 2; other pics. p. 20.

(By James
HOOVER GOES FISHING.—President Hoover (B), and Mrs. Hoover (A), chat with members of their party as Department of Commerce yacht Sequoia gets under way at Savannah, Ga., for presidential fishing trip. The President spent Christmas quietly on the Sequoia yesterday, but expects to renew his attack on the finny tribe of Georgia coast today.—Story on page 12.

Has New York a Heart for Homeless Girls?
 PAGE THREE